This scavenger hunt uses your ears instead of your eyes!

By learning bird songs you can learn to identify what birds are nearby and what they are saying. Print out the scavenger hunt pages or view them on your phone or tablet. Take a walk or find a quiet place to sit and listen. What bird sounds do you hear? To remember bird songs, people have come up with funny phrases that sound like human words or noises. What words do you hear them saying?

For more resources (and for audio clips of bird calls), visit the following websites:

Birds.cornell.edu

Audobon.org

Allaboutbirds.org
Bird Song Scavenger Hunt

Tufted Titmouse

Peter-peter-peter

What it sounds like to me:

_________________________________________

_________________________________________

Blue Jay

Jay Jay Jay

What it sounds like to me:

_________________________________________

_________________________________________

Gold Finch

Potato Chip

What it sounds like to me:

_________________________________________

_________________________________________

Carolina Wren

Teakettle Teakettle Teakettle

What it sounds like to me:

_________________________________________

_________________________________________
Bird Song Scavenger Hunt

Robin

Cheerily, cheer up, cheer up, cheerily, cheer up

What it sounds like to me:

_________________________________________

_________________________________________

Black Capped Chickadee

Cheeseburger
Chicka dee dee dee

What it sounds like to me:

_________________________________________

_________________________________________

Northern Cardinal

Cheer, cheer, cheer! Birdie, birdie, birdie!

What it sounds like to me:

_________________________________________

_________________________________________

Eastern Towhee

Drink your teeeeeeaa

What it sounds like to me:

_________________________________________

_________________________________________